This document describes how Truro and Penwith Academy Trust intends to fulfil its responsibilities under the Public Sector Equality Duty with regard to its pupils and its workforce.

The Public Sector Equality Duty requires our Trust to publish information about Equalities, specifically taking the following groups into account.

PROTECTED CHARACTERISTICS

Age

Sex (gender)

Race (ethnicity)

Pregnancy and Maternity

Religion and Belief

Sexual Orientation

Marriage and Civil Partnership

The information we publish and analyse must be clearly linked to the three aims (General Duties) of the Public Sector Equality Duty. General Duties are the things that schools aim to achieve.

GENERAL DUTIES

The three aims of the Public Sector Equality Duty are to:

Eliminate unlawful discrimination, harassment and victimisation and other conduct prohibited by the Act.

Advance equality of opportunity between people who share a protected characteristic and those who do not.

Foster good relations between people who share a protected characteristic and those who do not.

SPECIFIC DUTIES

The two specific duties of the Public Sector Equality Duty are intended to help schools meet the general duty. They are to:

Set Equality Objectives

Publish information

Much of the information and analysis will relate to the school improvement plan, evaluations and student data – we intend to use the information to improve education for all groups in each of our academies. We want to make sure we know which pupils are doing well and less well so we can plan and improve. The same applies to our employees.

We work hard to gather this information and it is already being used by our academies to develop their practice and improve outcomes for our pupils. We will use information which tells us we could be doing better to plan for the future and include these actions in our Equalities Objectives.
